

SKATES GREAT DEMAND.

More Skates Are Making This Summer Than Ever Before—One Order for 25,000 Pairs and Many for 10,000 Pairs—Next Winter's Skates and Prices Will Be High.

The business of making skates has had an impetus this year that it has never had before. Manufacturers and wholesalers are flooded with orders, and retailers are acting upon the supposition that next winter is to be an unusually long and cold one, with the result that smooth ice, with prices at an order for 10,000 pairs was considered almost phenomenal; this summer one order has been received for 35,000 pairs, and orders for 20,000 pairs are common.

Skates are not made in this city, but all the big makers have offices here. About one-half of the New York demand is supplied by Newark, N. J., and the remainder comes from New England, principally from Springfield, Mass. They are made in large quantities, but only on order to $1. The skate business is a very profitable one, and the demand is growing. The skating season is now open, and the demand for skates is increasing. The skating season is now open, and the demand for skates is increasing.

Two RACING STYLES FOR 1904. Eight feet long, 18 inches wide, and with steel, the best make costs $15. From this they go down to $12—three-foot long ones for small boys.

For fancy figure work, a handsome and substantial skate is provided at a cost ranging from $15 to $25.

THE 1904 TOROGRAN. between $11 and $15, furnished with a battery of blades of special "rock" and "thick" steel. The skate bag for next winter is made of green leather and has two pockets, one for each skate. It will sell for 75 cents. Cheap skate, in the same shape, but made of green leather, will sell for 50 cents, and single point bags, made of cloth remnants, for 25 cents.

AND NOW HEARD "Where Are Our Officers and Our Organization?"

The leaders of the little scattered bands of anti-Tammany Democrats in this city are in a state of confusion and demoralization. They have heard a little bird sing that with the aid of the Federal Administration they were to be made the nucleus of a powerful Democratic local faction, and that the call for its organization would promptly follow the appointment of an anti-Tammany collector of the Port in this city. Collector Kibborth was appointed in July, since which time the anti-Tammany have had their ears stretched until the length of those organs has occasioned jeering comment. The call has not been made, and Kibborth, Grote, Blake, Kuzenmann, Murray, and the rest of the anti-Tammany leaders are waiting for the call in the words of assorted statesmen: "What do you hear?"

NEW HARBORS FOR THE CANNON.

The Harbors Favor a Permanent Lease to Messrs. Lederer and Canary.

It appears from the statements made by the receivers and lawyers interested in the proprietorship of the Casino that the future of this playhouse has been definitely settled. Unless some new complication arises the Harbors will pass to the hands of George Lederer and Thomas Canary at the termination of the present temporary lease. In this event the Aronsons would have nothing to do with the management.

Messrs. Lederer and Canary have been negotiating for the house for some time, and on Friday they had a meeting of the interested parties in the store of the Hogenom corporation. There were present Henry T. Cutter, head of that company, Fabius M. Clarke, and ex-Judge Arnoux, who are receivers for the Casino's creditors, and Waldorf H. Phillips, representing Lederer and Canary. The receivers agreed to petition for a lease on the condition that Lederer and Canary should advance the money to pay off $28,000 worth of bank notes. The Harbors, however, refused to do this, and the receivers agreed to petition for a lease on the condition that Lederer and Canary should advance the money to pay off $28,000 worth of bank notes.

MR. LORILLARD'S INTENTION.

Four Months Compels the Famous Turfman to Retire Temporarily.

Mr. Florio Lorillard's physicians have told him that he must give up the turf, and the owner of the famous Rancho Stud announced yesterday at Sheepshead Bay his determination to sell his racehorses in training on Thursday of next week. This will include the great Lamplighter, for which he paid $30,000, and the useful racers Vestibule, Doragilla, Julien, Kildare, Kilkenny, Yemem, the two-year-old Venusberg, Flirt, a really great filly; Curacao, Lechivari, Rubicon, a most promising broodmare; and Chama, a filly, and Golden Valley, a two-year-old in training at the farm near Jobstown, N. J., will be offered at Morris Park some day during the fall meeting.

Mr. Lorillard said in the course of a chat with a representative of The Sun: "I shall go to Europe as soon as the sale is over and rest there, watching the trials of my yearlings until it is time to go to California, where I shall pass the winter. I may remain in the mountains of California next summer if I find the climate agrees with me. How many horses do I have? I have about 120 thoroughbred stallions. There will be no reserve on any of the horses offered, and they will be sold at any price. I have a number of other horses, but I want my most valuable ones. I have a number of other horses, but I want my most valuable ones. I have a number of other horses, but I want my most valuable ones.

CHINESE MINISTER.

Secretary of Legation at Peking, Mr. Wang, has been in the city for the purpose of making arrangements for the presentation of Yang Yu to the President, and it is understood that the question of the Exclusion law, with the satisfactory settlement of which the Minister is intrusted, was not touched on. Secretary Gresham and Yang Yu talked pleasantly through the interpreter for half an hour, but reached no agreement about the time of presentation to the President, as the Secretary said he would have to confer with his superiors before he could agree to that ceremony.

At noon Kwo Yui, the retiring Chinese Minister, called on Secretary Gresham, and the two went to the White House, where the Minister presented his papers of recall and made his final address to the President. The President, in his reply, expressed his regret that he could not see the Minister in view of the relations between China and the United States over the Exclusion law. In his closing letter to Kwo Yui, the Minister said:

My Premier, in accordance with the command of the Emperor, the Emperor, has ordered my successor to visit the Legation, and I am about to depart for my home. I have the honor to thank you for the opportunity to see you and to express my sincere regards to you.
